

A photograph of a middle-aged man with a grey beard and glasses, wearing a light blue button-down shirt. He is standing in front of a chalkboard filled with complex mathematical diagrams and equations. He has his right hand raised, pointing towards the board, and his left hand is gesturing. The background is a bright blue graphic with white geometric shapes and lines.

The screenshot displays the YuJa player interface. On the left, a video stream shows a man speaking, labeled with a '1'. To his right is a presentation slide titled 'What, How, and for Whom? Central Planning Versus the Market', which lists 'Three Problems All Economic Systems Must Address' (labeled with a '2'). Below the video and slide are five thumbnails of the slide, with the third one labeled with a '3'. At the bottom is a video control bar with a play button, volume icon, and a progress bar showing '03:23 / 07:27'. On the right side, there is a search bar (labeled with a '7'), an 'INDEX' table of contents, and a sidebar menu with options: SLIDES, CAPTIONS, NOTES (labeled with a '4'), COMMENTS, and RESOURCES. The 'NOTES' option is checked. At the bottom right of the sidebar are buttons for 'View Shortcuts' and 'Download Notes'. A '5' is placed near the sidebar menu, and a '6' is placed near the top right of the player area.
